THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI E. AHAMMED): (a) Yes. During the visit of Japanese Foreign Minister, Ms. Yoriko Kawaguchi, to India on August 12, 2004, India and Japan agreed that they "based on the firmly-shared recognition that both counries are legitimate candidates for the permanent membership of the Security Council in the light of the current realities of the international community, will support each other's candidature, and make utmost efforts and closely work together towards realising the reform of the Security Council."

(b) A large number of leaders from various countries in their speeches both at the UN General Assembly as well as during the discussions in the relevant committee on the subject, referred to the necessity of UN institutional reforms, the expansion of the Security Council, the inclusion of new permanent members and India's credentials in this regard. Since such support is expressed in different forms, it is difficult to give a definitive number on countries which have specifically supported India.
